LOCAL ECZEMA CURE
ENDORSED BY PHYSICIANS

After treating eczema for years as a practically incurable blood disease the medical world is greatly interested in the discovery that it is not a blood disease at all, but is due to a parasite in the skin itself. This parasite is easily destroyed by the external application of a compound of oil of Westergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc. This will quickly kill all eczema germs, while soothing and refreshing the skin.

Dr. R. A. Folkerts of Duluth, Minn., tells of the success in treating patients:
"There was a man here suffering from eczema for the last fourteen years, and I applied the D. D. D. treatment. I also applied it to a man of West Duluth, Minn., who has been suffering with Rheumatism for fourteen years, and Eczema in his feet, and the second treatment in both cases cleared the skin almost absolutely.
The first application is a balm, and its soothing effect is beyond expression. I never see him again, and shall use it among my patients altogether."

No matter how terribly you suffer from eczema, salt rheum, thymol, etc., you will feel instantly soothed and the itch allayed at once when a few drops of this oil of Westergreen compound is applied.
The cures are permanent. Permanent

In Hotel Corridors

EARLE C. WHITE, one of the leading real estate men of Pocatello, Ida., is at the Cullen, accompanied by his son, Earle, Jr., and by W. F. Kasiska, reputed to be the wealthiest man in Bannock county. The latter is proprietor and owner of the Bannock hotel at Pocatello, and is an intelligent promoter who never fails to invest capital in whatever scheme looks good to him.
They are here on business and on their way back to Pocatello, where they have an important business deal to close.

THOMAS T. KERL of Coeur d'Alene known as one of the leading mining men of that famous district, is among the many guests registered at the Cullen.

O. B. GRANGER, wife and daughter, Mrs. Kathryn, of Albion, Mich., are tourists who are registered at the Cullen.

G. F. PENROSE and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Owens, all of Philadelphia, are at the Cullen. They leave today for the coast.

G. E. BOWERMAN and C. H. Converse and wife, all of St. Anthony, Ida., are at the Kenyon. Both Mr. Bowerman and Mr. Converse are prominent in the wool business.

MR. AND MRS. R. G. LYBRAND and Mrs. Louise Welch of Delaware, O., are among those stopping at the Kenyon.

J. T. SAMUELSON of Colorado Springs, treasurer and general manager of the Colorado Springs Transfer and Livery company, is at the Kenyon.

H. E. HEFFELINGER of Reading, Pa., and James S. Scheffler of Pen Argyl, Pa., are at the Kenyon. Mr. Heff-elinger is the man who made a name for himself years ago as the greatest full-back the Yale football eleven ever had.

MR. AND MRS. R. E. MONTAGUE and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Yennavine, all of Washington, D. C., are guests at the Wilson.

and Mrs. L. H. Vogel and Mr. and Mrs.
E. A. Taylor, all of Boston, are Hub tourists registered for a few days at the Knutsford.

DR. AND MRS. S. C. HOOKER of Philadelphia, are at the Knutsford. Dr.
Hooker has the distinction of being one of the leading specialists of the Quaker city.

MERCHANTS TO INSIST
ON PROMPT PAYMENT

To insist upon prompt payments of bills, at least every thirty days, was the sense of the meeting held by the Retail Merchants association in the Auerbach building Wednesday evening.
A long discussion was carried on during the evening, and it was alleged that many people of the city abused the privilege of credit and delayed settlements, week after week, often paying only small amounts at a time, until the bill had become very large.

Members of the association contended that it was absolutely necessary to insist upon regular settlements, in order to prevent failure in business. It was pointed out that, although a great majority of the customers did not pay their bills regularly, there was nevertheless a large number of people who delayed until the merchants were seriously hampered in their business.

SOPHIA TAYLOR NUTTALL
CALLED TO OTHER SIDE

Mrs. Sophia Taylor Nuttall, daughter of the late President John Taylor and wife of the late John Nuttall, died at her home, 43 North West Temple street, at 5:45 p. m. Saturday. Her death followed a prolonged illness, yet came as a severe shock to her host of friends, as it was only Friday that she was reported as being greatly improved.

Mrs. Nuttall had been a prominent figure in the Relief society work of the Mormon church, and had all her life been a devoted believer in the doctrines of the church. She was born in Salt Lake City on July 14, 1849.

The arrangements for the funeral are not yet completed, but in all probability the services will be held in the Seventeenth ward chapel on Tuesday next, at noon. Further announcement will be made later.

Week's Bank Clearings.
Total bank clearings for Saturday, March 20, were $37,581.63, as compared with a total of $39,013.01 for the corresponding day of 1908, or an increase of $1,431.62 over the corresponding day of a year ago. The total amount for the entire week was $330,998.65, as compared with a total of $4,722,136.51 for the corresponding week a year ago.
This shows an increase of $608,862.14, or an increase of about 10 per cent.

"THE BUNGE," THE PRESS CLUB'S PLAY, WILL BE PRESENTED ON MARCH 31

"The Bungle" will be presented at the Salt Lake theater by the Press club Wednesday, March 31, matinee and night. The play was written by Burl Armstrong and is directed by Mr.
H. L. Culmer. The rehearsals have developed much talent and ability, and assure a good show.

"The Bungle" has more of a story than the name itself implies. While it was, in a way, suggested by "The Man of the Hour," it does not follow the Broadhurst play too closely, but diverges upon original lines and progresses in an entertaining way toward a fitting climax that spells reform in a brand new way.

The first act finds a number of politicians at the home of Willie Workem, the political boss of Salt Lake, just at the opening of another city campaign.
Mr. L. Ed Pype, a politician and a plumber who wants to be mayor, is making a speech to the multitude that has gathered to share the hospitality of Workem. The scene itself is a picture worth remembering. The front lawn of the boss is lighted with festivals of vari-colored lights. There is a suggestion of any fine residence on Brigham street. Pype's speech is cheered by the people, who are feeling pretty good anyhow, for it is an honor to be a guest of Mr. Workem.

Workem finds capital timber for the majority in the shape of R. E. Forme, a young man of wealth whose time is spent in lightsome pastimes, and who cares little or nothing for the sordid game of politics or for the serious work of civic rule. Workem picks him from obscurity and makes him mayor.

In the meantime, Forme is in love with Chloira Workem, the daughter of the political boss, and to make the story even better, Chloira is loved by Pype. Between Pype and Forme there springs up a rivalry which is accentuated by the fact that Forme accepts the mayorship, and an undying hatred is pledged right in the very first act.

Chloira has seen so much of Salt Lake politics that she does not want her lover to mix into it, but he overrides her objections, thus causing a serious break, and accepts, much to the delight of a blonde stenographer, who loves him, anyhow.

The second act finds the company at the office of the Butchers' and Grocers' association, and here the gentle diversion of raising prices on food stuffs is seen going on at full blast.

It develops that the new mayor, after being in office three weeks, has cleaned up a cool million. This is considered somewhat hypocritical, since at the end of the first act he became so virtuous that he oozed purity at every pore. The political boss, who has been proud of his protégé at the opening of the campaign, now sees his mistake and conspires with the plumber, who is also the villain, to unhorse the mayor. The way it is done is another story, and the climax of the second act throws an altogether new light on the case and complicates matters greatly.

The action is resumed in the third act. The scene is that of a newspaper office. It is the intention of the Press club to give to the people an exact reproduction of a newspaper office, and what goes on there. The story behind the scenes of a newspaper has quite as much romance as that behind the scenes in a theater. The novelty of this scene is one of the strong points in the play.

Of course, there must be papers—in this play. No genuine playwright would overlook this essential. Also, there is a mortgage, and the mortgage hovers over the newspaper, which becomes the bone of contention in a three-cornered battle between the mayor, the boss and the villain. Complications arise at every corner, but not so as to be bothersome to the plot. The denouement comes after a series of

THIS SPLENDID STOMACH TONIC WILL CURE YOU OF INDIGESTION

If your meals don't tempt you, or you feel bloated after eating and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, cructations of sour food and acid, heartburn, brash or a belching of gas, you can make up your mind that you need something for a sour stomach and indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of your body, you must rid your stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas, which sours your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of dyspepsia, sick headache, nauseous breath and stomach trouble of all kind; putrefying the intestines and digestive canal, causing such misery as biliousness, constipation, griping, etc. Your case is no different stirring climaxes in the newspaper office, and all ends in a whirlwind of fun.

Of course, there is a premium on graft. The new mayor wins after being down and out, and all ends happily —you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pape's Diapiesin will cost fifty cents at any pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking one triangle that fermentation and sour stomach is causing the misery of indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble catarrh of the stomach, nervousness or gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that a certain cure is waiting at your pharmacist's any time you decide to begin its use.

Pape's Diapiesin will purify the sour-est and most acid stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort, all or any kind of food you could eat.

for him and his sweetheart, and any others who may be deserving. That is at least a skeleton of the story.
